

Common elective and acute problems in the General Surgery of childhood

A Royal College of Surgeons of England Accredited Course

To be held at St Edmund Hall, Oxford

22nd February 2018

Aims

Provide participants with the knowledge and skills needed to establish and maintain a high quality and safe practice as a District General Hospital surgeon with a sub-specialty interest in the general surgery of children.

Provide a useful update for surgeons with an established practice.

The emphasis is on conditions seen in District General and Rural Hospital Practice

Case-based discussion and lectures

Introduction to networks in General Paediatric Surgery

The role of BAPS

Discussion of specific operative techniques

Who should attend?

Consultants and Higher Trainees in General Surgery

Consultants and Higher Trainees in Urology

Fee: £190.00

Trainees: £170.00

Time 8:30 -17:00

There will be a dinner following the course.

Registration

Web: <http://www.baps.org.uk/events/common-elective-acute-problems-general-surgery-childhood/>

Email: congress@baps.org.uk

Telephone: 02074302573

Post: BAPS,
Royal College of Surgeons of England,
35-43 Lincolns Inn Fields
London
WC2A 3PE

Name:

Address:

GMC number:

Grade and specialty:

Contact telephone number:

I will attend the dinner: Y N

Place of Work: